Iowa Automobile Dealers Foundation for Education Awards Grant to Hawkeye Community College

WEST DES MOINES, Iowa— The Iowa Automobile Dealers Foundation for Education awarded $6,000 to Hawkeye Community College as part of its ongoing efforts to support automotive education in the state of Iowa.

The grant will be used to purchase a Robinair Air Conditioning Recovery Recharge machine. This equipment will allow students to gain experience using the newest technology in air conditioning refrigerants.

“Both students and their future employers benefit when students are exposed to new technology in the classroom,” said Mary Cason, executive vice president of the Iowa Automobile Dealers Foundation for Education. “The Foundation is excited to provide the funds to purchase a Robinair Air Conditioning Recovery Recharge machine and help improve the education of students at Hawkeye Community College.”
